FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/2/63

ROBERT POSTLETHWAIT, Bartender, Mart Cocktail Lounge, Room 115, International Trade Mart, 124 Camp Street, advised that he has worked as bartender at this lounge for more than 13 years. He stated that he regularly works from 9 AM until 6 PM and added that seldom does he leave the International Trade Mart during his working day. He stated that he recalled an incident involving several persons who supposedly were passing out handbills in front of the International Trade Mart sometime during August, 1963, but he explained that he had not observed any of these activities, and the only basis for all information in his possession was a report that a customer had given him on this occasion.

POSTLETHWAIT was furnished several photographs made available to the FBI by radio station WDSU which depicted persons passing out handbills at 124 Camp Street on August 16, 1963. He advised that he was unable to pick out any of the individuals represented in these photographs with the exception of JOHN ALICE, who he said operated an Import-export firm at the Trade Mart, and likewise picked out a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD whom he said he recognized from television and newspaper coverage of the assassination of the President.
